

Dan Lonergan

MC & Keynote
Speaker/Mental Health

Based in: Melbourne

---

SPEAKER DETAILS

Dan Lonergan has been a Sports Media professional working as a successful and high-quality sports broadcaster, commentator, journalist, presenter mainly on radio for 35 years. He has also been a regularly sought-after MC especially for sporting clubs, leagues and associations over the years.

Dan has broadcast a large array of sports including AFL Football, soccer, tennis, cricket, golf and many Olympic sports during an 18-year stint as a senior sports broadcaster at ABC Radio sport in Melbourne and Perth.

He has also commentated footy on Triple M and hosted sporting programs at other radio stations including a brief tenure at SEN and EON Radio sport.

Dan has a reputation for having an encyclopedic knowledge of all sports. When employed as MC of functions and events for sporting clubs, his strengths are always his warmth, knowledge and friendly and engaging personality.

Over many years, he has been employed for numerous writing assignments mainly related to sport, where he has developed a reputation in providing insightful and analytical copy used for many different and varied publications and magazines as well as a plethora of social media and websites.

Dan's gregarious nature coupled with a quirky sense of humour, attention to detail and extensive preparation when assigned any task, have always ensured he has performed successfully at a very high level.

Being gainfully employed constantly in the Sports Media Industry since 1989 in a variety of roles indicates Dan Lonergan is well respected and renowned for being an excellent performer.

Dan has also been guest speaker at numerous functions and been well received, He has attracted excellent receptions when it comes to talking about his mental health struggles and how he has been able to cope.