SPEAKER DETAILS

With over 15 Melbourne International Comedy Festival shows, a long list of guest appearance on Australian television, numerous appearance in Los Angeles with NBC and a string of credits as a writer, director and producer under his belt, it's no wonder Doug Chappel is a popular choice amongst some of Australia's biggest Football Clubs, Sportsmen Night's, Charity Events and Corporate Functions.

One of Australia's premier comedians, Doug Chappel has been making audiences laugh for many years now. His comedy has been heard on commercial radio and he is also responsible for writing, directing and producing numerous shows for theatre restaurants, festivals and television. An energetic performer with hilarious facial expressions, astute observation and charm, he has toured internationally, been the headline act in every major comedy club in Australia. Headlining Comedy Clubs all over the UK, Ireland and Scotland, he has performed in the exclusive Jongleurs Comedy Club London, the World Famous London Comedy Store and as feature comedian on P&O Cruise Ships. The consummate comedian, Doug's material is drawn from his life's experiences. His hilarious mix of comedy and pathos has his audiences feeling like they have just made a new best friend.
